23 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

“ It was 15 years ago that Erica & I crossed paths and it was as if we had been friends forever! What served as both of our ‘rock bottoms’ in life, was only the beginning of a beautiful, purposeful, & fulfilling friendship, that I will forever hold dear.

Erica was full of life! She was a Mother who absolutely adored her children and protected them, no matter what life threw her way. She withstood the storms and adversities with such a humility about her, inspiring those around her.

She became my sister, the aunt to my children, and the greatest friend God could have ever given me!

My heart breaks with this news, but I know Erica is now rejoicing and free with those she missed & loved dearly! Rest peacefully, my sweet Erica! I will miss you every day.

“ I was 9 years old and Ill never forget the day Carol brought Erica home from the hospital. It was a much anticipated day for me as I was super excited for Carol because Erica was her miracle baby. I was outside playing with the other neighborhood kids when their car topped the hill. They stopped to let me get a peak at her. She was such a beautiful baby and her Mom was beaming with joy. I hope you're all together with Jesus now sweet girl. I love and miss you all. You are and will always be family to me.
