23 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

“ She was absolutely a once in a life time woman. She had a heart and spirit that this world was worthy of. She loved her boys more than any thing in this world and I find it to be an honor and blessing to have been able to spend the last 4 years of her life with her. We shared a connection that I've never experienced with any one or anything in this lifetime. She taught me a lit about myself and stood by me when no one else would. She seen the potential and she refused to give up on me. I wouldnt be the man I am today with out her or our precious baby boy. Terri, I hate things ended this way. But I know you're still here with us as we need you. I love you. Jackson loved you. And again.. I thank you for allowing me the opportunity to love you and be with you your last years on this earth. As bad as it hurts us. I know you're enjoying yourself where you are. So, FLY HIGH MOONCHILD!! Until I see you again. I love you.
